GlobalEyes

What is the GlobalEyes Network?

The GlobalEyes Network is a Canadian based organization focused on the development and enrichment of international student programs in the K-12 international education sector.

About us

We are comprised of a specialized team of industry experts who will lead you in opening your school, school board, or region to students from around the world. In addition, GlobalEyes works with existing international student programs (ISPs) to help reframe for future growth and success. Services and accompanying products from GlobalEyes are the first of their kind developed and offered internationally.

How can we help you attain your ISP goals?

Building and expanding an international student program is possible to do on your own. However, it takes a great deal of time, travel, and money to do it properly. Sustainable growth requires a high-quality network of contacts around the world.

Working with GlobalEyes allows you to:

Shortcut steps in the development process

Save time, money, and energy to fast track local and global awareness for your institution

Define & accomplish local growth and program refinement objectives

Access a network of international agents with recommendations specifically for you

Receive the best advice to negotiate the uncertainty of the COVID-19 era and beyond

Network

The team at GlobalEyes has the expertise and experience to help build or restructure your program and get you noticed in the crowded field of international education marketing.
